

University College Dublin Ad Astra Academy Scholarships TERMS AND CONDITIONS

UCD as part of its mission is committed to the recruitment and support of high performing students and has established an Ad Astra Academy to deliver on this objective. Ad Astra Scholarships are awarded in the areas of academic, performing arts and sporting excellence. Academy staff will maintain a regular dialogue with Ad Astra Academy Scholars to support them and monitor their progress throughout the year.

This document sets out the Terms and Conditions for Scholarships of the Ad Astra Academy and its associated three strands: academic, elite sport and performing arts. Scholarships are subject to a written agreement and successful applicants must abide by the following terms and conditions. Further terms and conditions specific to each strand are listed in this document.

As UCD students, Ad Astra Academy Scholars are subject to the University's Student Code, Academic Regulations, and all relevant University policies and procedures. Please read these terms and conditions thoroughly prior to accepting your Ad Astra Academy Scholarship and signing your individual agreement. The Ad Astra Academy will be compliant with the University's data protection policies and procedures as laid down by the Data Protection Acts of 1988 – 2018 and the 2018 General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

Any breach of this agreement by the Academy Scholar would leave the Scholar liable at the discretion of the University to a repayment of the amount paid in respect of accommodation, registration fees and any other financial support associated with the Academy.
