

UCD School of Archaeology

Register
Now

ARCHAEOLOGY SUMMER SCHOOL

Thursday 9th June 2016

As part of the UCD Summer School for students entering 6th year UCD School of Archaeology is hosting an Archaeology Summer School. We invite you to our Archaeological Sciences sample lecture and to visit to our Centre for Experimental Archaeology. You will also hear about Archaeology as a subject and as a profession, your transferable skills and an enjoy an open forum discussion with a range of archaeologists. Registration is through UCD as part of the UCD Summer School which also offers other subjects from 7–10 June.

- sample lecture ● introduction to Archaeology ● experimental archaeology ●
- subject and career talk ● campus tour ● archaeological science ●

<http://ucdsummerschool.ie/>

www.ucd.ie/myucd

Time	Activity	About
9.00-9.30	Welcome and registration	Registration Desk in the Newman Building concourse (adjacent to the coffee shop).
9.30-10.15	'So what is Archaeology really about?' Room K012, Newman Building	An introduction to how archaeologists think and what we do.
10.15-11.15	Tour of the School of Archaeology and Campus	Visit our research and laboratory facilities to see our ongoing work.
11.15-11.30	Refreshments
11.30-12.30	Archaeological Sciences: sample lecture/workshop Room K012 Newman Building	Explore how the sciences bring new understanding to human remains, living conditions, economies and environments through time.
12.30-1.00	Archaeology as a subject and as a profession: careers, transferable skills and applications Room K012, Newman Building	Archaeology can build towards a professional career in cultural heritage or contribute to a broader education to compliment a wide variety of potential careers.
1.00-2.00	Lunch and video screening
2.00-3.30	Visit to the Centre for Experimental Archaeology: reconstructions and demonstrations. Roebuck Castle	Explore Ireland's only Centre dedicated to experimental archaeology to better understand ancient buildings, foods and crafts.
3.30-3.45	Refreshments
3.45-4.30	Meet the archaeologists. Room K012, Newman Building	An opportunity for discussion with invited staff, students and professional archaeologists to share their experiences of studying and working in Archaeology.
4.30	Close	