The UCD Institute of Criminology is an integral part of the School of Law. Founded in 2000 its aims are to:

- Undertake high quality research on crime, criminal justice and the penal system, which contributes to the development of policy and practice and advances criminology as an academic discipline.
- Create a centre of national and international excellence in criminology.
- Collaborate with national and international organisations, including government departments and other research institutes.
- Enhance public understanding through the dissemination of the results of research by various means, including the media.

UCD Institute of Criminology
UCD College of Human Sciences
UCD School of Law
Department of Justice, Equality and Law Reform

Director: Professor Ian O’Donnell
Executive Assistant: Ms Angela Ennis

UCD Institute of Criminology,
School of Law,
Roebuck Castle,
Belfield,
Dublin 4

http://www.ucd.ie/criminol/criminology@ucd.ie
(01) 716 8730
Wednesday 5 September
12.00-1.00 Lunch: Law School Boardroom
1.30 - 2.15 Welcome:
Ian O Donnell, Director, UCD Institute of Criminology
Opening Address: Tim Newburn, Professor of Criminology and Social Justice, London School of Economics, President, British Society of Criminology

2.15 - 4.00: Legal Education Centre
Law and Society
Chair: Shane Kilcommins, University College Cork
Title: Multiple dominions: Understanding An Act against Plowing by the Tayle and Pulling the Wooll off Living Sheep (Ireland, 1635).
Name: Piers Beirne, University of Southern Maine, & National University of Ireland, Galway
Title: The role of legislation in the detection and prevention of stalking behaviour
Name: Catherine-Ann O’Keeffe, Irish Human Rights Commission
Title: Religiously motivated crime in Scotland: Sectarianism and Section 74 legislation
Name: Susan Wiltshire, University of Glasgow
Title: A new green for the Emerald Isle: domestic cannabis production
Name: Gary Potter, Queens University Belfast
4.00-4.30: Tea/Coffee (Legal Education Centre)

4.30 – 6.15: Legal Education Centre
Policing and Social Control
Chair: Eoin O Sullivan, Trinity College Dublin
Title: ‘Alright in their own place’: Irish Travellers and the police
Name: Aogán Mulcahy, University College Dublin
Title: Race, policing and criminal justice
Name: Charles O’Mahony, Law Reform Commission
Title: Challenges of community policing in Ireland
Name: Johnny Connolly, Health Research Board
Title: Youth crime prevention and commonsense: governance and the network state
Name: Matt Bowden, Trinity College Dublin
6.30-8.30: Buffet Supper (Law School Boardroom)

2.15 - 4.00: Law School Seminar Room
Youth Justice
Chair: Mairead Seymour, Dublin Institute of Technology
Title: The children court: A national study
Name: Emer Meehan, Association for Criminal Justice Research and Development Ltd
Title: Are ASBOs an extreme measure; An unnecessary layer?
Name: Carmel Conway, National University of Ireland, Galway
Title: The interaction between perceived neighborhood disorder and self-control on self-reported delinquency in boys
Name: Jessica Breen, Trinity College Dublin
Title: Presumed innocent? Custodial remand in the Republic of Ireland: Reality vs. rhetoric
Name: Sinéad Freeman, Dublin Institute of Technology

4.30 – 6.15: Law School Seminar Room
International Developments
Chair: Tom O’ Malley, National University of Ireland, Galway
Title: Conflicts of jurisdiction in the prosecution of transnational crimes
Name: Gerard Coffey, University of Limerick
Title: The Europeanization of human rights: An obstacle to authoritarian policing in Ireland?
Name: Barry Vaughan, Institute of Public Administration
Title: Holocaust denial and trivialisation: Where to for Ireland?
Name: Jennifer Schappe, University of Limerick
Title: Implications of the EC Data retention directive for criminal justice in Ireland
Name: Nora Ni Loideain, National University of Ireland, Galway

Thursday 6 September
1.00-2.00 Lunch: Law School Boardroom
9.30–11.00: Legal Education Centre
Psycho-Social Issues
Chair: Ciaran McCullagh, University College Cork
Title: Transformative loyalism: Who would have thought it?
Names: Pete Shirlow, Queen’s University Belfast
Shadd Maruna, Queen’s University Belfast
Title: The dynamics of desistance: Exploring the psychology of reform among persistent adult offenders
Name: Deirdre Healy, University of Sheffield
Title: Reimprisonment among Ireland’s young offenders
Name: Nicola Hughes, UCD Institute of Criminology
11.00-11.30 Tea/Coffee (Legal Education Centre)

11.30-1.00: Legal Education Centre
Sex Crimes
Chair: Phil Scraton, Queens University Belfast
Title: A feminist analysis of the Irish law on rape
Name: Susan Leahy, University College Cork
Title: CC v Ireland one year later: An examination of the impact of the decision on Irish criminal law
Name: Lydia Buckley, University College Cork
Title: Juries in rape cases: Results from the Rape Attraction Project
Name: Conor Hanly, National University of Ireland, Galway

2.15-3.45: Legal Education Centre
Prison Policy
Chair: Ian O Donnell, UCD Institute of Criminology
Title: Prisoners and voting: An international comparison
Name: Cormac Behan, UCD Institute of Criminology
Title: Irish prison policy and penal-welfarism
Name: Mary Rogan, Trinity College Dublin
Title: Prisoners’ families, human rights and penal policy
Name: Helen Codd, University of Central Lancashire
3.45-4.00 Closing Remarks: Sean Aylward, Secretary General of the Department of Justice Equality and Law Reform
4.00-Tea/Coffee (Legal Education Centre)