

PROGRAMME FOR RESEARCH IN THIRD-LEVEL INSTITUTIONS

Transforming the Irish Research Landscape

The HEA are delighted to announce a series of seminars and workshops to be held at the 'Transformations' Exhibition, Science Gallery, Trinity College Dublin.

The exhibition is open to the public and runs from Thursday 27th November to Tuesday 2nd December.

A series of seminars and workshops will take place at the exhibition on Friday 28th November.

Programme of Events
Friday 28th November
Science Gallery
Trinity College Dublin

Time	Seminar	Location	Capacity
11.30-12.30	From Science to Society: Investing in Early Childhood'	Lecture Theatre	80
11.30-12.30	Mapping during the Irish Plantations, c.1580-1640'	Seminar Space	40
13.00-14.00	'Will we ever understand how the brain works? Mission Impossible'	Lecture Theatre	80
13.00-14.00	Immigration and Multiculturalism Interactive Workshop	Seminar Space	40
14.30-15.30	The Irish National Election Study'	Lecture Theatre	80
14.30-15.30	Nano: Science and Technology get really small'	Seminar Space	40
16.00-17.00	Human Rights in Legal and Intercultural/Interreligious Perspectives	Lecture Theatre	80
16.00-17.00	Immigration and Multiculturalism Interactive Workshop	Seminar Space	40
17.10-18.00	GradCAM: 'a new design: creative practice and new thinking for research'	Lecture Theatre	80

For more information please go to www.hea.ie or www.sciencegallery.com or Contact Mark Byrne at (01) 2317178 or markbyrne@hea.ie