

The Road to Success

A degree from UCD Quinn School of Business will provide you with the foundation necessary to achieve your career goals. Below we have followed the career paths of some of our graduates.

Roisin Branch,
BComm International 2004
Consumer Marketing Manager,
Philips

Following her BComm Int (Spanish), Roisin commenced employment with Diageo as an assistant brand manager based in the Canary Islands. She was then promoted to the head office in Madrid, a position she held for 3 years. Following this she moved to London where she assumed the role of European Brand Manager. In May 2010 Roisin accepted a position as a Consumer Marketing Manager at Philips, based in Amsterdam.

Mary Quaney,
BComm International 1999
Senior Tax Associate,
Mainstream Renewable Power

Following her BComm Int (French), Mary completed the Masters of Accounting at UCD Smurfit School. She joined PricewaterhouseCoopers in 2000 and completed the AITI and ACA professional qualifications. Mary worked with PwC for six years and in 2006 joined Trinity Biotech Plc where she progressed to Head of Tax & Corporate Compliance. Since 2009 Mary has worked with Mainstream Renewable Power, a renewable energy company.

Ed Fidgeon Kavanagh,
BComm 2008
Founder, Clear Presentation

Following his BComm, Ed worked for Merck Sharp and Dohme (Pharma company) for 7 months on a data analysis project. Having travelled around the US and Canada, Ed came back to Ireland to work for a technology start-up True North Metrics as marketing manager. In January 2010 Ed founded 'Clear Presentation' - a presentation design business.

Conor King,
BSc Economics & Finance 2009
Ernst & Young

Following his BSc Economics and Finance degree, Conor completed his Master of Arts in Economics at UCD. He is due to commence his 4 year training contract with Ernst and Young in September 2010 and will be based in the Assurance Department. On completion of his traineeship Conor will be a qualified chartered accountant.

Melanie Morris,
BComm 1986
Editor, Image Magazine

Following her B.Comm, Melanie moved to London to work for "Ab Fab" PR guru Lynne Franks, specialising in fashion and youth brands. On returning to Ireland in 1993, she established and edited dSIDE magazine. Melanie has also worked as beauty editor at The Irish Times and Sunday Tribune magazines. Melanie became editor of IMAGE Magazine in 2005.

Laurence Banville
Business & Law 2008
Defense Attorney

Following his Business & Law degree, Laurence landed a number of prestigious and valuable internships that gave him a solid foundation to progress to where he is today. He currently practices as a defense attorney in Philadelphia, USA protecting the interests of large corporations from mass tort product liability suits. Laurence is President of Irish Network - Philadelphia and Executive Board Member of Irish Network-USA.