Section G: Regulations for the Degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medical Specialisation (DVMS)

Affected Section(s)	Description of Change to Regulations	Date AC or ACEC approval
51.4	Amendment to the regulations to reflect that responsibility for continuation decisions no longer lies with UPB.	28.07.2016
54.9	Amendment to the regulation to reflect the new assessment appeals process.	05.05.2016
54.1, 54.6	There are two changes proposed to regulations 54.1 and 54.6: 1. Amend the regulations to mandate a compulsory viva voce once an examination is formally set in motion by the submission of a doctoral research thesis. This includes removing the discretion of the Examination Committee to judge whether or not the thesis is suitable for examination. 2. Amend the regulation to state that the viva voce examination will normally be held within two months of receipt of the thesis by the examiners and not, as is currently stated within the regulations, within two months of submission of thesis.	07.05.2015
50.2, 50.3, 50.4, 50.5, 50.8	The reference to “credits” for the research activity element of the University’s graduate research degrees has been removed. This change solely relates to research degrees and not to the minor dissertation at graduate taught level.	01.05.2014
51.4	The recommendations that the Assessment Panel may make following a formal assessment within the programme have been amended. They align with amendments made to the decisions the examination committee may make.	01.05.2014
54.6	The text has been amended to clarify the possible outcomes of the examination that the Examination Committee may recommend to ACCE.	01.05.2014
54.7	A new regulation stating that it is ACCE that decides to authorise or not the award of the degree has been inserted.	01.05.2014
