

Association of Latin Americanists in Ireland

UCD

7th - 8th March 2008

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES OF LATIN AMERICA

Honorary Speaker: Professor Edwin Williamson, University of Oxford

Call for Papers

The fourth conference of the Association of Latin Americanists in Ireland (ALAI), to be held at University College Dublin from the 7th – 8th March 2008, aims to address and unravel some of the complexities of Latin America through an exploration of those symbols and images which have either shaped, emerged from, or been transformed by various art forms and media.

Proposals for papers of 20 minutes are now warmly invited. These may be Spanish American, Brazilian or comparative in nature and should include a title, an abstract of max 250 words, and your full contact details (including your e-mail address).

Please send proposals by 16th November 2007 to:

Dr Annette U. Flynn,
Hispanic and Lusophone Studies,
School of Languages and Literatures,
University College Dublin, Belfield,
Dublin 4, Ireland
annette.flynn@ucd.ie

Moai at Rano Raraku. Photo © robert bingham

