

UCD School of Archaeology

Research Seminar Series

(Every Thursday at 4 pm, Room C110, Newman Building, UCD)

All welcome

For further information contact:
archaeology.soc@gmail.com
stephen.davis@ucd.ie

Week 1: Thursday 20th January, 2011

Prof. Chris Scarre, University of Durham

“Island of the Dead? Exploring Neolithic landscapes on Herm (Channel Islands)”

Week 2: Thursday 27th January, 2011

Dr. Eileen Murphy, Queen’s University, Belfast

“Parental emotions and child loss with respect to Irish cillini’

Week 3: Thursday 3rd February, 2011

Dr Ralph Fyfe, University of Plymouth

“Is there anything down there? The archaeological and palaeoecological potential of Dartmoor's peat”

Week 4: Thursday 10th February, 2011

TBA

Week 5: Thursday 17th February, 2011

Dr Jim Leary, English Heritage

“Authoring the mound. Recent work at Silbury Hill”

Week 6: Thursday 24th February, 2010

Dr Carleton Jones, NUI Galway

“The Burren in prehistory”

Week 7: Thursday 3rd March, 2011

Dr Stefan Bergh, NUI Galway

"Places of Prominence: Some aspects of the symbolic role of high places in Neolithic/Bronze Age Ireland"

Week 8: Thursday 24th March, 2011

Dr Barra O'Donnabhain, University College Cork

"Bodies and Souls: performative violence in medieval and early modern Ireland"

Week 9: Thursday 31st March, 2011

Prof. Charlotte Roberts, University of Durham

"Expectations and realities of the bioarchaeological reconstruction of health and disease: some perspectives using recent research"

Week 10: Thursday 7th April 2011

Prof. James Mallory, Queen's University, Belfast

Title TBA

Week 11: Thursday 14th April, 2011

Dr Melanie Giles, University of Manchester

"The Roos Carr figures: exploring martial materiality"

Week 12: Thursday 21st April, 2011

Dr Michael Potterton, Four Courts Press

"Feeding the city: Dublin and its hinterland in the Middle Ages"

Archaeological Society Seminars (even weeks) are sponsored by

Four Courts Press

