Ireland's Premier University

Ireland's No. 1 destination for study tours

Welcome to Ireland's premier university

If you're planning a Faculty-led Study Tour next summer, then look no further than University College Dublin, Ireland's largest and most renowned university.

It offers world-class academic and sporting facilities and is within easy reach of Dublin city centre and the magnificent Irish countryside, along with a host of cultural and visitor attractions.

Our dedicated Centre for Study Abroad, can offer you a highly flexible approach, customising a programme that meets the specific needs of your group, including assistance with arranging cultural activities and group events.

- We liaise with you in advance to create a robust and effective framework for your tour.

- Avail of excellent classroom and computing facilities, along with guest lecturers from any of UCD's five Colleges: Arts & Celtic Studies; Human Sciences; Business & Law; Life Sciences; Engineering.
- Comprehensive Orientation Programme for your group as soon as they arrive at the UCD campus, while we also address all on-site logistical needs, including safety and security, and transport.
- An extensive Social and Cultural Programme will enhance your group's experience of living Irish culture, including our business and commercial environment.

Why UCD is the perfect Study Tour venue

- Individual bedrooms in a range of well appointed and comfortable 4-bedroom and 6-bedroom suites. Each suite has a shared kitchen and living room - plus our excellent campus dining facilities are available throughout the summer for added convenience.
- Safe and secure environment, with 24-hour Reception and 24-hour security. Wi-fi is available free of charge.
- Mingle with Irish and overseas students in a supportive and educational environment.
- Located in a prime residential area just under three miles from the city centre, with fantastic public transport network and Aircoach from Dublin Airport to the campus.
- Student Medical Centre on campus and St. Vincent's Hospital just minutes from the college.
- FREE ACCESS to our 50-metre swimming pool, well equipped gymnasium, James Joyce library and free social and cultural programme.

We couldn't say it better ourselves

See what some former Study Tour Groups have said

"The location was fabulous – really easy to get into Dublin city and was only two hours drive to the beautiful city of Galway where we went on a day tour."

"The suites were lovely; our students loved having their own individual bedroom."

"The team at UCD simply couldn't have been more welcoming and we felt like a really important part of campus life right throughout our stay."

"Fantastic classroom and theatre facilities and if we needed something extra, we only had to ask and it magically appeared."

"During downtime, the free Olympic-size pool and sports facilities were great and the campus was a lovely green space to simply wander around for a bit of relaxation."

"It was so easy to get to pretty much anywhere in Ireland from Dublin. Our day trip to the Cliffs of Moher will stay in the memory for a very long time."
