College of Arts and Humanities Global Scholarship

Terms and Conditions [January 2016]

1. The College of Arts and Humanities Global Scholarship Programme is funded by the schools of the College Arts and Humanities and aims to attract excellent candidates to the UCD's graduate programmes and encourage early application;
2. For one year Masters Programmes, the scholarship will cover the awarded amount against one year of tuition fees. For two year Masters programmes, the scholarship amount is renewable in the second year subject to the student maintaining an annual grade point average of no less than 3.08/4.2 (upper second class);
3. In order to be eligible to apply for this advertised scholarship, applicants must have 'Offer', 'Conditional Offer', 'Accept' or 'Conditional Accept' status associated with their application;
4. Scholarship awards are applicable to full time Masters programmes only, excluding online programmes;
5. Successful candidates will be selected on merit;
6. Once scholarship awards are issued, students must accept this offer within two weeks of the notification being distributed by the committee. It is the student's responsibility to formally accept the scholarship offer, a non-response will be considered as declining the offer;
7. Only complete applications received before the scholarship deadline will be considered;
8. This scholarship is not eligible to be combined with any other tuition scholarship;
9. Applicants must be self-funding and classified as non-EU for tuition fee purposes;
10. Students awarded a scholarship must commit to attending UCD Open Events where required. Students must also agree to join the Student Ambassador Panel and provide testimonials, or podcasts on their experience at UCD where required. They are expected to assist occasionally as ambassadors for their School;
11. A student who withdraws, cancels or becomes inactive, enrolls less than full-time, is suspended, or dismissed from the University will lose his/her scholarship eligibility. A student who takes such a status due to medical reasons may appeal in writing to Scholarship Committee to have his/her scholarship reinstated. The appeal must be submitted with supporting documentation, such as a letter from a doctor. In such a case, for there to be a possibility for reinstatement, a student's leave from the University cannot exceed two consecutive semesters;
12. A student who declines an initial offer of admission and accompanying scholarship offer will not retain his/her scholarship offer if he/she reappplies at a later date.
