

A Message of Thanks

A special message of thanks to alumni for your support of families and friends of students who lost their lives, and to those that are still in hospital after the Berkeley tragedy. Thank you for attending the UCD Memorial Service; signing the online condolence book and sending your support in many many ways. The UCD Memorial Service is available to view on the iPlayer

Need access to UCD's Libraries?

When you graduated from UCD, you became part of our global alumni community. You have a lifelong link to our University and can avail of all the advantages and opportunities that this brings, including regular events and reunions on campus. As part of this, for an annual fee of just €30.00 you can enjoy a range of benefits including access to all of UCD's Libraries. Our membership year runs from 1st October to 30th September - but if you join now we will offer the summer months free so your card will not expire until 30th September 2016! It is easy to register for Library Access online. All you will need is your Student ID (8 digit number) which acts as your log-in, and then enter your date of birth in the format DDMMYY as your password. If you already hold a red Campus UCARD for Library Access or UCD Sports & Fitness, there is no need to request a new card - the card you have will be automatically updated for you.
