

Postdoc Research Careers Week

7-11 March 2016

Photo Competition

As part of Postdoc Research Careers Week, UCD Research Careers, in conjunction with the Local Enterprise Office (LEO), Dun Laoghaire/ Rathdown County Council, are running a photo competition for UCD postdocs (PDI/II) on the theme of 'Enterprising Researchers'. The winning photographer will receive an iPad, kindly sponsored by the LEO.

Competition rules

- This competition is open to University College Dublin Postdocs (PDI/II) from across all the discipline areas and schools.
- It is free of charge to enter, but you can only submit a maximum of three images per applicant.
- The theme of the competition is 'Enterprising Researchers'.
- You should email your photo, your name and your staff number, your research area and a max 50 word description of how the photo fits with the theme to researchcareers@ucd.ie by the closing date (Monday 29th February). Only your photo and the description will be displayed in the judging of the images (i.e. identifiers like your name/ research area will not be visible). Submissions must be in digital format. The preferred image format is JPG/ JPEG or TIFF.
- Entries may comprise colour or black and white images.
- A panel of judges will compile a shortlist of photos that will be exhibited over the course of Postdoc Research Careers Week.
- The shortlisted photos will be shared on UCD Research Careers social media and may be used in marketing Research Careers events after this week.
- The PDI/II community will choose the winning photo from the shortlist.
- The winner who will be announced on Wednesday 9th March immediately after the 'Enterprising Careers' panel discussion session.
- The competition will run until lunchtime (13.00) on Monday 29th February 2016.
- No further correspondence will be entered into.
