

UCD CENTRE FOR WAR STUDIES

in cooperation with

Deutsches Historisches Institut Moskau

Германский Исторический Институт в Москве

War, Revolution, Civil War: Eastern Europe 1917-23

25 -26 March 2011

Venue: Clinton Institute, Seminar Room
University College Dublin, Belfield, Dublin 4, Ireland

Friday, 25 March 2011

13:00 Registration

13:30 Welcome and Introduction

13:45 - 15:30 Panel 1: The War as Imperial Challenge - Russia

Chair: Nikolaus Katzer (German Historical Institute Moscow)

Semen Gol'din (Hebrew University Jerusalem):

The Jewish Policy of Military and Civilian Authorities as a Case Study of the Systemic Crisis in the Russian Empire, 1914-1917

Boris Kolonicky (European University St. Petersburg)

"Nicolas the 3rd": Images of the Commander in Chief Grand Duke Nikolaj Nikolaevich (1914-1915)

15:30- 16:00	COFFEE BREAK
--------------	--------------

16:00 - 17:30 Panel 2: Revolution and Civil War - Russia

Chair: Katja Bruisch (German Historical Institute Moscow)

Vladimir Shishkin (Institute of History, Russian Academy of Sciences, Novosibirsk)

WWI as a factor of Russian Revolution and Counterrevolution

Yulia Yurievna Khmelevskaya (Center for Cultural History Studies, South Ural State University, Chelyabinsk)

A la Guerre com a la Guerre: the American Relief Administration and experience of the First World War in Fighting the famine in early Soviet Russia, 1921-1923

Dmitrij Simonov (Institute of History, Russian Academy of Sciences, Novosibirsk)

Russia's Military Potential in 1918

19:30 DINNER

Saturday, 26 March 2011

09:30 - 11:00 Panel 3: The Baltics and Finland

Chair: Tomas Balkelis (University College Dublin)

Juha Siltala (Helsinki University)

Terror in the Finnish Civil War

Aldis Minins (University of Latvia)

Years 1918-1920 in Latvia: Freedom Fights or Civil War

Taavi Minnik (Tallinn University)

Terror and Repressions in Estonia, 1918-1919

11:00- 11:30 TEA / COFFE BREAK

11:30 - 13:00 Panel 4: Poland

Chair: Julia Eichenberg (University College Dublin)

Frank Golczewski (University of Hamburg):

The Wars after the War. The Fight for the Polish Eastern Border 1918-1920

Jan Snopko (Białystok University):

The influence of the Russian revolution on the policy of Joseph Pilsudski and the fate of the Polish Legions (1917-1918)

Rüdiger Ritter (Free University Berlin):

Germans and Poles fighting against regional identity: The Confrontations in Upper Silesia after World War I from the perspectives of participants, the regional, national, and international public

13:00- 13:30 LUNCH BREAK

13:30 - 15:00

Panel 5: The Balkans

Chair: John Paul Newman (University College Dublin)

Mark Biondich (Carleton University)

"The Balkan Borderland: The End of Empire and the Unmixing of Peoples"

Alexander Korb (University of Leicester)

"Terrorists interned" Ustasha nationalists, revisionist powers and the breakup of Yugoslavia

Uğur Ümit Üngör (University of Utrecht)

A Ten-year War? Post-war Violence in the Ottoman-Russian Borderlands

Dmitar Tasic (Institute for Strategic Research, Department of Military History)

Some Common Attributes of Political Violence in Albania, Yugoslavia, and Bulgaria

15:00 COFFEE / TEA BREAK

15:30 - 16:30

Roundtable Discussion

Chair: Robert Gerwarth (University College Dublin)

Nikolaus Katzer (German Historical Institute Moscow)

Katja Bruisch (German Historical Institute Moscow)

Tomas Balkelis (University College Dublin)

Julia Eichenberg (University College Dublin)

John Paul Newman (University College Dublin)

Judith Devlin (University College Dublin)

We wish to thank the European Research Council (ERC) for its generous support of this event:

