

University College Dublin
An Coláiste Ollscoile, Baile Átha Cliath

Programme

University College Dublin School of Law PhD Workshop on Human Rights The Legacy and Future of the ECHR: Evaluating Sixty Years of the European Human Rights Project

Friday, 1 April 2011

- 17:00 Registration. Wine Reception. UCD Belfield, Roebuck Castle, Boardroom
- 18:00 Key Note Address by Deputy Registrar of the ECtHR Michael O'Boyle.
UCD Belfield, Humanities Institute

Saturday, 2 April 2011

UCD Belfield, Roebuck Castle, Boardroom

- 9:00-10:15 Opening of the workshop with Key-note address by Mr. Justice John Hedigan
- 10:15-10:30 Coffee Break
- 10:30-11:30 Session 1. *Legitimacy of Rulings of the European Court of Human Rights
Chair: Prof. John Jackson, University College Dublin
Discussant: Sean O'Toghda, Barrister, King's Inns
- Kanstantsin Dzehtsiarou, University College Dublin: Living in a Changing World: Evolutive Interpretation and European Consensus. Legitimacy of the Tools of Interpretation Deployed by the European Court of Human Rights
- Adamantia Rachovitsa, University of Nottingham: Determining the Scope of a Dispute Brought Before the European Court of Human Rights: Challenges Posed by and Limits to the Recent Practice of the Court
- 11:30-13:00 Session 2. *The Relationship between the EU and the ECHR
Chair: Prof. Imelda Maher, University College Dublin
Discussant: Dr. Oana Stefan, HEC Paris
- Francesco Battaglia, University of Messina: The Possible Role of the Fundamental Rights Agency after the Accession of the EU to the ECHR
- Roderic O'Gorman, Trinity College Dublin: The ECHR, the EU and the weakness of social rights protection at European Level
- Noreen O'Meara, University of London: Relations between the CJEU and the ECtHR: the proposed "internal review" procedure

13:00-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:30 Session 3. *The ECHR and State Security

Chair: Suzanne Egan, University College Dublin

Discussant: Carl Grainger, Chair, Irish Society of International Law

Alan Greene, University College Dublin: Separating Normalcy from Emergency: Article 15 of the European Convention on Human Rights in the aftermath of A v UK

Rumyana Grozdanova, University College Dublin: How 'Absolute' is the ECHR Prohibition on Torture? From Ireland v United Kingdom to Gäfgen v Germany

Hana Missaoui, Université Paul Cézanne: Shall the ECHR Extra-Territoriality Effect Theory be applied to European Military Corporations?

15:30-15:45 Coffee Break

15:45-17:15 Session 4. *Future of the European Court of Human Rights

Chair : Dr. Graham Finley, University College Dublin

Discussant : Dr. Fiona de Londras, University College Dublin

Sarah Lucy Cooper, Birmingham City University: Marriage, Family, Discrimination and Contradiction: The European Court of Human Rights and the Rights of Sexual Minorities

Kirill Koroteev, University Paris X Nanterre: Repairing the Irreparable: The Developments in the Non-Monetary Awards of the European Court in Individual Cases

Andrew Tickell, Hertford College Oxford: Bending the iron cage: The limits of a legal understanding of the admissibility decision-making of the European Court of Human Rights

17:15-18:00 Wine Reception

If you have any questions please contact: Kanstantsin Dzehtsiarou

k.dzehtsiarou@yahoo.co.uk or Alan Greene alan.greene1@ucdconnect.ie