

School of Politics & International Relations

Seminar Series, Semester 1, 2018-19

All welcome

www.ucd.ie/spire

14 September 1-2pm	Dr Sinead Walsh, (EU Ambassador to South Sudan)	Failure and Heroism. Western intervention and West Africa's Ebola outbreak
26 September 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Dr Aidan Regan (UCD SPIRe) & Dr Liam Kneafsey (TCD)	Competitive Nationalism(s) and European Integration: Explaining Popular Support for Corporate Tax Avoidance.
3 October 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Dr Andy Storey (UCD SPIRe)	The Use and Abuses of Ordoliberalism: The Ideology of Economic Governance in Europe.
10 October 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Dr Akisato Suzuki (UCD SPIRe)	Why Citizens Let Their Leaders Engage in Armed Conflict: A Rationalist Explanation
31 October 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Dr Nicole Janz, (Politics & International Relations, University of Nottingham)	Expropriation and human rights: Does the seizure of foreign assets signal wider repression?
7 November 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Dr Dawn Walsh (UCD SPIRe)	Independent commissions and power-sharing in post-conflict societies
21 November 1-2pm, G316 Newman	Yao Wang (UCD SPIRe)	European Union Trade Defence Policy toward China under the Framework of World Trade Organization, 2003-2017
28 November 1-2pm. G316 Newman	Dr Samuel Brazys & Dr Krishna Vadlamannati, (UCD SPIRe)	Priming The Pump. Does Aid Pave The Way For Investment?