UCD BUSINESS STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMME

As a Study Abroad student at the UCD Quinn School of Business, you join the largest and most dynamic business school in Ireland, participating in all aspects of academic and social life in our vibrant campus. UCD Quinn School of Business is the only business school in Ireland to hold both AACSB and EQUIS accreditations – the quality mark for top ranking business schools in the USA and Europe.

The Largest And Most Dynamic Business School In Ireland

Facilities

The UCD Quinn School of Business state of the art, modern building was opened in 2002. It has one of the most advanced eLearning infrastructures in Europe. As part of this infrastructure, laptop computers are an integral part of the learning process.

Business Subject Choices

Modules are available in the following subject areas:

- Accounting
- Banking and Finance
- Business Management and International Business
- Industrial Relations & Human Resource Management
- Management Information Systems
- Marketing

Module Details

Details of the modules available within the business major may be obtained from www.ucd.ie/students/course_search.htm

Each module is comprised of two hours of formal classes per week. Students attending the Quinn School of Business take four Business modules per semester and a required Irish History module.

Irish History

In addition to business modules, Study Abroad students are required to take a special module focusing on Irish History and Culture. This module is taught under the same structure as the business modules. Field trips to places of historical interest are an integral component of this module.

Assessment

Formal examinations are set at the end of each semester in December and May. International students are expected to undertake examinations in accordance with University regulations. Increasingly, project and class-based work form a substantial component of the assessment process.

Credit Transfer

At the end of the semester, the UCD Quinn School of Business sends an official transcript to the home institution. The home institution decides on credits to be awarded for modules completed at UCD. We will be pleased to provide full information on our modules to enable institutions to make decisions regarding the transfer of credits.

Eligibility

THE MINIMUM GPA REQUIREMENT IS 3.00.

In addition to completing the UCD on-line application process, a standard form of identification i.e. copy of Passport, a transcript of academic record to date and a letter of recommendation from an academic referee should be sent to the UCD Quinn School Study Abroad Programme Office before the application deadline.
