

Comhshaoil, Oidhreacht agus Rialtas Áitiúil
Environment, Heritage and Local Government

The Humanities Institute of Ireland is funded under the Programme for Research in Third Level Institutions (PRTL), administered by the HEA

The Adoption of Agriculture in Ireland:

what are the research priorities?

UCD School of Archaeology presents a public forum for discussion and debate to be held at the:

William Jefferson Clinton Auditorium,

John Hume Global Ireland Institute, Belfield, University College Dublin

11 am, Saturday May 17th 2008

The Draft Report is now available on line:

see www.ucd.ie/archaeology

Directions:

www.ucd.ie/maps/follow the link for the pdf
map, the William Jefferson Clinton Auditorium is building no. 50.

Timetable

10.30-11.00: Registration and Coffee

11.00-12.30: Introduction, Background, Key Developments, Overall Challenges

12.30-1.30: Lunch

1.30 - 3.15: Specific Challenges, responses from Discussants

3.15-3.45: Coffee

3.45 - 4.30: Open floor discussion, Closing Remarks

4.30: Reception

Acknowledgements

This project is enabled by a UCD President's Research Fellowship. The Humanities Institute of Ireland have provided office facilities and the UCD School of Archaeology provides support in kind. The seminar has received support from the Dept of Environment, Heritage and Local Government, the John Hume Global Ireland Institute and Ireland 8000-2000.

Registration and Contact Details

As space is limited we advise that you register your intention to attend. Please contact Graeme Warren, UCD School of Archaeology, Newman Building, Belfield, Dublin 4.
Graeme.Warren@ucd.ie