

UCD Constitutional Studies Group
UCD School of Law

Constitutional Law: An Update

School of Law, Roebuck Castle, UCD | Wednesday March 2nd 2011 | 6.00-8.30 pm

2.5 CPD HOURS

Conference schedule

5.45	Registration.
6.00	The top 20 cases of 2010 — Eoin Carolan.
6.30	Questions and answers
6.40	Recent developments in Irish constitutional law – Eoin Carolan.
7.20	Questions and answers
7.30	Constitutional Reform: a new conventional wisdom? – John O'Dowd.
8.10	Questions and answers.

Booking Details

Conference Fee: €60 (practitioners of at least 5 years experience; government representatives)

Conference Fee: €45 (practitioners of less than 5 years experience; students; NGO representatives; the unwaged).

| CPD: 2.5 Hours | To Reserve a Place: sinead.hennessy@ucd.ie

Speaker Details

Eoin Carolan B.L. is a practising barrister and a lecturer in Constitutional Law in University College Dublin. He has contributed to a number of works in this area, including The New Separation of Powers (Oxford University Press, 2009), The Irish Constitution: Governance and Values (Thomson Round Hall, 2008) and The Right to Privacy (Thomson Round Hall, 2008). He is also the internal examiner for the FE-1 examinations for the Law Society of Ireland.

John O'Dowd has lectured constitutional law in UCD since 1992. He is a member of the European Group of Public Law and regularly contributes to conferences and publications of that international group of experts on constitutional and administrative law and in other fora. He is the internal examiner for Irish Constitutional Law in the entrance examination for the Degree of Barrister at Law in the King's Inns.