A photograph of a museum gallery. In the foreground, a large black vase with red-figure Greek art is on the left, and a smaller black vase with red-figure art is on the right. Between them is a small white sculpture of a winged figure. In the background, several glass display cases are arranged, containing various ancient pottery items. The cases are numbered 4, 5, and 6. Above the cases, there are framed photographs of ancient buildings. The text "UCD Graduate School of Arts and Celtic Studies" is overlaid on the image.
