

University College Dublin CENTRE FOR STUDY ABROAD

UCD CENTRE FOR STUDY ABROAD

The UCD Centre for Study Abroad provides a resource to all non-EU students studying at UCD promoting intellectual challenge, cultural immersion and individual growth. The Centre's team comprises of coordinators from UCD Colleges & Schools, each providing a structured and responsive service to students studying within their discipline. The core ideals of the Study Abroad Programmes at UCD are founded on the key objectives of academic excellence and cultural integration.

Academic Programme

Typically, Study Abroad students take six modules during a semester. Modules are chosen from an extensive range available from UCD's undergraduate degree programmes. Study Abroad Students attend regular classes alongside Irish and other international students. Project and study groups are designed to ensure that students are fully integrated into the UCD learning environment. Classes are typically 3 hours per week per module. Grading is based on continuous assessment and final examination.

UCD offers the following Study Abroad Programmes:

- Agriculture, Food & Nutrition
- Architecture
- Arts, Celtic Studies and Human Sciences
- Business
- Clinton Institute for American Studies
- Engineering
- Nursing & Midwifery
- Pre-Law
- Pre-Medical
- Pre-Veterinary

Student Support

The Centre for Study Abroad provides an excellent student support system for Study Abroad students including:

- Pre-arrival support and information
- Transition management
- Orientation programme
- Housing assistance
- Extensive cultural/social programme
- Regular lunch meetings
- On-going personal and academic support

Housing

On-campus housing

Students are accommodated in apartments shared by three/four persons each with their own single room. www.ucd.ie/residences

Off-campus housing

Off-campus housing is available in private rented houses and apartments in Dublin. The Centre for Study Abroad facilitates students in proposing suitable accommodation. Houses are furnished and within walking distance of Dublin city centre and on a bus route to UCD.

Cultural/Social Programme

One of the essential elements of the study abroad experience at UCD is for international students to fully understand and appreciate the richness of Irish society and culture.

Our cultural/social programme offers Study Abroad students the opportunity to learn about Irish culture through a series of excursions and field trips in Dublin and across the island of Ireland. The country's rich and complex history has left a remarkably artistic legacy and modern Ireland continues to be a global centre of artistic and cultural excellence.

Typical Activities include

- Wicklow Mountain Walk
- Neolithic tomb Day trip
- Trip to National Theatre
- Castle Tour
- Irish Dancing
- Traditional Irish Music

Student Clubs and Societies

An exciting feature of life at UCD is the range of over one hundred student societies and clubs that are all open to Study Abroad students. These provide an opportunity to become more involved in college life and pursue a variety of interests. Early in the semester there is an exhibition to promote and provide information on the clubs and societies.
