

UCD SCHOOL OF POLITICS AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

HUMAN RIGHTS AND POLITICAL THEORY

A CONFERENCE IN HONOUR OF ATTRACTA INGRAM

APRIL 23 2010

MERVILLE HOUSE,
NOVA UCD, BELFIELD

Vittorio Bufacchi (Philosophy, UCC)

A deflationary theory of human rights

Aileen Kavanagh (Law, Oxford)

Constitutionalism, politics and human rights

John Tasioulas (Philosophy, Oxford)

Some problems with political conceptions of human rights

Susan Mendus (Politics, York)

Pluralism and political liberalism

Kok-Chor Tan (Philosophy, Pennsylvania)

Cosmopolitan toleration

Philip Pettit (Politics, Princeton)

Republican legitimacy, domestic and global

Conference Organisers: Iseult Honohan, Graham Finlay

Advance registration is required; early registration is advised as places are limited.

Further information and registration details at:

www.ucd.ie/spire/seminarsevents/ingramhumanrightsconference/

For further information contact: Iseult Honohan (iseult.honohan@ucd.ie)

This conference is supported by UCD's Seed Funding Scheme, UCD Global Ireland Institute and UCD School of Politics and International Relations

