

UCD School of History and Archives

RESEARCH FORUM

Meetings take place on Tuesdays at 4pm in K114, School of History and Archives

26 January

Dr Tadhg ÓhAnnracháin

UCD School of History and Archives

"The Miraculous Mathematics of the World: nature, rationality and the existence of God in Cardinal Péter Pázmány's Guide to the Divine Truth (1637)

2 February

Dr David Kerr

UCD School of History and Archives

The colonie estive and Fascist Italy's "acceleration towards totalitarianism": children, welfare and propaganda in the 1930s

9 February

Professor Brian Walker, Queen's University Belfast

'Villain, victim or prophet? : William Gregory, the Gregory Clause(s) and the Irish Famine.'

16 February

Dr John McCafferty

UCD School of History and Archives and UCD Mícheál Ó Cléirigh Institute

'Putting faith back into the history of religion:
seventeenth century Franciscan rules in Irish'

2 March

Professor Anne Curry, University of Southampton:

'Soldiers and civilians in Lancastrian Normandy: conflict or collaboration'

23 March

Professor Richard Vinen, Professor of Modern European History

King's College London: 'Britain's Thatcher'

30 March

Professor Stuart Carroll, University of York

'Reflections on Natalie Davis's "Rites of Violence"'

6 April

In conjunction with the Australian Studies Centre

Dr Frank Bongiorno, Menzies Centre, King's College London

'Sexual Revolution in Australia: 1960-80'

13 April

Dr Judith Devlin

UCD School of History and Archives

'The Problem of 'Public Opinion' in Stalin's Russia.'

*For further information please contact
Dr Lindsey Earner-Byrne, School of History and Archives, UCD*