Consent to Disclose Disability Information

This Consent to Disclose and Share Disability Information Form applies to all UCD students, both undergraduate and postgraduate with permanent and long-term disabilities. With your consent your documents will be UCD ALL Disability Support Privacy Statement. This statement provides full details of the legal basis and methods utilized to collect, store and process this data and your individual rights under General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Such disclosure is encouraged so that UCD can work with students in ensuring that any reasonable accommodation required is identified and facilitated in consultation with the student.

Any documentation or information presented in disclosing a disability is held by the Disability Service, and specific medical or other documentation will not be disclosed to any third party, except where necessary to provide reasonable accommodations.

Please note that if you provide us with the documentation in advance of registering on a UCD programme and then choose to not enrol, your evidence of disability will be destroyed. If you decide to study at UCD at a later date, you will need to re-submit your medical evidence and disclosure form.

UCD will not disclose details of your disability to other students. It is your choice whether to tell others that you have a disability or that you are accessing/receiving support.

Consent to Release Information

I request reasonable accommodations on the basis of my disability from UCD Access and Lifelong Learning (UCD ALL). I consent to UCD ALL adding information relating to the nature of my disability and reasonable accommodations to my student record.
