

UCD Access & Lifelong Learning

Think Again Scholarship 2023

Undergraduate Students 2023-2024 | Terms & Conditions

Please read the following terms and conditions carefully. A signed copy must be returned to thinkagain@ucd.ie by 5pm on Friday 15 September.

As UCD students, Cothrom na Féinne Scholars, including Think Again scholars, are subject to the University's Student Code, Academic Regulations, and all relevant University policies and procedures. Please read these terms and conditions thoroughly prior to accepting your Scholarship. UCD Access & Lifelong Learning will be compliant with the University's data protection policies and procedures as laid down by the Data Protection Acts of 1988–2018 and the 2018 General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

1. This scholarship is a private scholarship funded through UCD Foundation and is intended to foster academic excellence by funding costs related to the scholar's programme of study.
2. These scholarships are tenable for the duration of the primary degree programme undertaken only in UCD.
3. It is a requirement of the scholarship that scholars are registered to the programme of study in UCD for which they are awarded the scholarship and remain so for the duration of the degree.
4. A student can only hold one significant scholarship. In the event of a student qualifying for more than one scholarship, the scholarship of the greatest value will be awarded. This applies to all significant scholarships (including 1916 Bursaries, All Ireland, Uiversity). It is the responsibility of the scholarship recipient to inform UCD Access & Lifelong Learning if they are in receipt of any other significant scholarship.
5. Awarding of this scholarship should not affect entitlement to the Student Grant administered through SUSI or the Student support fund.
6. The students who are awarded scholarships are required to pay any fees due to the University. Failure to do so may result in withdrawal of the scholarship.
7. Scholarship offers cannot be deferred.
8. If a scholar wishes to suspend their programme of study, they must comply with the University's guidelines on this. Any extended period of absence may impact on a scholar's eligibility to continue to receive the scholarship.

UCD Access & Lifelong Learning

Think Again Scholarship 2023

Undergraduate Students 2023-2024 | Terms & Conditions

9. As this scholarship is funded by philanthropic donor funds, successful candidates will be asked to write some reflections on their experiences, extracts of which may be used to report back to donors and in publicity materials. Photographs are optional and at the discretion of the scholar.
10. Payment of the scholarships is subject to the scholars successfully progressing from year to year within their programme.
11. If a student must repeat a stage, UCD Access and Lifelong Learning scholarship will suspend the scholarship for that year and payment of the scholarship will resume once the student progresses to the next stage of their studies. Academic performance will be monitored, and support provided if necessary.
12. UCD Access and Lifelong Learning reserves the right to withdraw the scholarship should a student continually fail to complete the academic standards of their programme if they fail to comply with the terms and conditions of the scholarship or if they face disciplinary proceedings within UCD.
13. Applicants must have a legal entitlement to remain in Ireland to complete their proposed course of study. The onus rests with the applicant to satisfy the University in this regard.
14. UCD Cothrom na Féinne Scholars are encouraged to act as role models within UCD and their local community and are expected to follow the guidelines of the Student Charter. It is the scholar's responsibility to ensure that they understand the terms and conditions under which the scholarship is awarded.
15. UCD reserves the right to withdraw this scholarship immediately and without notice to you where you are determined by the University to have misled the University about any aspect of your eligibility to receive the scholarship. The University shall be entitled to seek repayment of any portion of the scholarship that has already been paid to you.
16. UCD reserves the right to make changes to these Terms and Conditions at any time where such a change arises as a result of changes in regulations or legislation.

UCD Access & Lifelong Learning

Think Again Scholarship 2023

Undergraduate Students 2023-2024 | Terms & Conditions

Payment of Scholarships

17. Normally this scholarship will be paid in two instalments each academic year; at the start of the Autumn Trimester and the start of the Spring Trimester.

18. This payment will be made by electronic transfer to the bank account listed on the scholar's UCD student record. As such, it is necessary for scholars to have their own bank or Credit Union account in order to receive payments.

I have read, understood, and agreed to the above terms and conditions and would like to accept my offer of a scholarship

Full Name (block capitals): _____

UCD Student Number: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____