

Architectural Association of Ireland presents:

Donaghy + Dimond Architects

Thursday 30th November

19:15

Joly Theatre, Hamilton Building, Trinity College

Donaghy + Dimond Architects was established in 2001 by Marcus Donaghy and Will Dimond, two architects with extensive experience of working on urban and rural design projects in Ireland and abroad. The practice has developed a reputation for high-quality innovative, sustainable design.

Note the standard entry fee of €5 applies, with the option of purchasing an official CPD receipt for an additional €5. Student admission for this event will be €2 on a one-off basis. Entry to this event will be free to all students and TCD faculty and staff.

Please note this event will take place in the Joly Theatre in the Hamilton Building in Trinity College. Please refer to location map, right.

