

Conference programme (all times GMT)

Thursday 11 March 2021

9.00	Fabienne Pigière	Welcome and introduction to the meeting
	Session leader: Canan Çakırlar	Session 1: Animal husbandry and by-products processing
9.15	Fabienne Pigière	Is it all about the economy? To what extent did the Roman economy shape the morphology of livestock?
9.45	Angela Trentacoste, Ariadna Nieto-Espinet, Silvia Guimarães, Silvia Valenzuela-Lamas	Roman livestock production in northern Italy: technical innovation or economic re-organisation?
10.15	Chiara A. Corbino, Chiara Comegna, Valeria Amoretti, Massimo Osanna	Equine exploitation at Pompeii (AD 79)
10.45		Break
11.00	Ariadna Nieto-Espinet, Silvia Valenzuela-Lamas, Angela Trentacoste, Silvia Guimarães	Economic adaptations or cultural change? The Romanisation rhythms of Hispania tarraconensis from a zooarchaeological perspective
11.30	Cleia Detry, Silvia Valenzuela, Simon Davis, Ariadna Nieto, Angela Trentacoste, Silvia Guimarães, Ana Elisabete Pires, Catarina Ginja	Cattle from the far West: changes and continuities in Roman Lusitania
12.00	Silvia Guimaraes, Irene Ureña, L. Ferreira, Cleia Detry, Simon Davis, Ana Margarida Arruda, Catarina Viegas, Alexandre Gonçalves, Joaquina Soares, Carlos Tavares da Silva, João Pimenta, Ariadna Nieto-Espinet, Angela Trentacoste, Anders Götherström, Ana E. Pires, Silvia Valenzuela-Lamas, Catarina Ginja	Western Mediterranean Roman cattle: a genomic perspective
12.30		Lunch
	Session leader: Claudia Minniti	Session 1: Animal husbandry and by-products processing (cont.)
13.30	Mladen Mladenović, Stefan Pop-Lazić	Animal management in the fortified palace Felix Romuliana – Gamzigrad (Serbia) throughout the Late Antique and the Early Byzantine periods
14.00	Nisa Iduna Kirchengast, Günther Karl Kunst	A generalized approach to deposits of long bone splinters from Roman sites
14.30	M. Carmen Lozano-Francisco, Pilar Corrales Aguilar	Analysis of ichthyological residues from Malacitan cetariae
15.00		Break
	Session leader: Sonja Vuković	Session 2: Supplying town and animal trade
15.15	Jacopo De Grossi Mazzorin, Claudia Minniti	The impact of trade on animal consumption and exploitation in Rome during the Roman period: the evidence from zooarchaeological analysis.
15.45	Gabriele Soranna	Reshaping Rome food supply during the late Antiquity period (4 th -6 th cent. AD)? Analysis of faunal evidence from the Palatine hill NE slope.
16.15	Victoria Moses, Francesca Alhaique	Same place, changing patterns: animal economy at Gabii (Latium, Central Italy) from the Early Iron Age through the Imperial Period
16.45		Break
17.00	Stephanie Dolenz, Karis Baker, Naomi Sykes, and Holly Miller	Dama Mia: Investigating Origins and Game Activity of European Fallow Deer in Roman Period Sicily
17.45-18.45	Public lecture: Maaïke Groot	Farming for a growing population: the Roman impact of agriculture in the provinces of Germania

Friday 12 March 2021

	Session leader: Silvia Valenzuela-Lamas	Session 2: Supplying town and animal trade (cont.)
9.00	Canan Çakırlar	Provisioning Roman Beirut: the zooarchaeological evidence from excavations in Beirut's souks (primarily BEY006)
9.30	Abra Spiciarich, Lidar Sapir-Hen	The Faunal Evidence from Early Roman Jerusalem: The People behind the Garbage
10.00	Lidia Colominas	Roman market economy and sheep mobility in Iberia. New clues from a GMM approach
10.30		Break
10.45	Steve Roskams, Jane Richardson	Faunal evidence and the 'consumer city' debate: York and its immediate hinterland
11.15	Alice Bourgois	Geese in the northern roman Gaul's economy : studies of Ambiani and Bellovaci sites
11.45	Jacopo De Grossi Mazzorin	The exotic animal trade from Roman provinces. The results of animal remains study from the Roman town of Thamusida (Kénitra, Morocco)
12.15		Lunch
	Session leader: Sabine Deschler-Erb	Session 3: Animals in the economy of the Roman frontiers, within and outside the Empire
13.15	Dimitrije Marković	Army diet and supply systems of a Roman period fort on the Danube Limes in today's Serbia: preliminary zooarchaeological results
13.45	Sonja Vuković	Continuities and discontinuities in animal exploitation throughout the Roman era in the central Balkans: archaeozoological evidence from Viminacium
14.15	Idoia Grau-Sologestoa, Sabine Deschler-Erb	Crossing the limes – Animals and economy on both sides of the Germanic frontier
14.45		Break
15.00	Julie Reynaert, Julia Chorus, Laura Llorente Rodriguez	Zwammerdam on the Rhine: The contribution of archaeozoological research to the current knowledge of Roman Nigrum Pullum
15.30	Pam Crabtree, Allison Casaly, Sam Disotell, Zenobie S. Garrett, Douglas Campana, and Erin Crowley-Champoux	Faunal Remains from Dún Ailinne, County Kildare, Ireland: Past, Present and Future research
	Session leader: Fiona Beglane	Session 4: Research tools
16.00	Vincent Mouchi, Camille Godbillot, Catherine Dupont, Marc-Antoine Vella, Vianney Forest, Alexey Ulianov, Franck Lartaud, Marc de Rafélis, Laurent Emmanuel, Eric P. Verrecchia	Elemental fingerprinting of oyster shells to reconstruct provenance
16.30		Break
16.45	Dominika Schmidtová, Vera Klontza-Jaklova, Anthony King, Ricardo Fernandes	Presenting the Roman archaeofaunal initiative (RAF)
17:15-17:35	Scientific committee	Closing remarks
17:35-18:15	RPWG coordinators: Silvia Valenzuela-Lamas, Sabine Deschler-Erb	Business Meeting: Election of the next meeting venue. Future directions and working topics