

CANCER RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

07 June 2024 - Conway Institute, UCD Belfield

13:30 Registration (light lunch and refreshments provided)

14:00 - 14:45 Session 1: Opening Session

Recent updates and innovations from UCD Cancer Research, the Mater Misericordiae University Hospital, St Vincent's University Hospital, and the UCD Cancer Trials Cluster.

14:45 - 15:45 Session 2: Patient Voice / PPI Brainstorm Panel Discussion

Panel discussion on the inclusion of the patient voice in cancer research across UCD and its clinical sites.

New Investigators Quick-Fire Introductions

The panel discussion will be followed by quick-fire introductions from our new cancer research investigators on their research work and collaboration opportunities.

Networking Break and Poster Viewing

During the break, network with colleagues, discuss poster with their presenters, or enjoy a guided tour of the Conway Institute & Systems Biology Ireland

16:30 - 17:30 Session 3: Artificial Intelligence in Cancer Research

With the rise of AI (artificial intelligence), this session will explore its impact on cancer research and care.

17:30 - 18:15 Session 4: Keynote Address

Prof Manuel Salto-Tellez (Queen's University Belfast) - will deliver the keynote address on "AI for more effective cancer diagnosis" followed by Q&A.

18:15 Closing Remarks