

SURVEY OF SCHOOL LEAVERS 1996, CODING GUIDE

Page	Q. No.	Codes
2	2,3a,3b,48b	See card with area codes for counties within Ireland and Countries abroad. Dublin unspecified Code = 28 Ireland not specified Code = 90 .

3	7	Code subjects as per lists overleaf for Leaving/Matric, Senior Cert., and Junior Cert. If unanswered and never sat for exam code - 9 for L7.1. Otherwise when not answered Code - 9 for L7.1, L7.2, L7.3.
---	---	---

In Leaving Cert., all subjects may be either Higher (code 1) or Lower (code 2), (except Maths and Irish which also have Alternative levels. Alternative Maths/Irish is Coded as level '3').

In Senior Cert. and Matric, all subjects are Common Level (Code 6).

In Junior Cert., Irish, English and Maths may be either Higher, Ordinary or Foundation Level (Codes 1, 2 or 3 respectively).
All other subjects are Higher or Lower.

Grades are entered in alpha , A, B, C, etc., or alphanumeric A1, A2, B1, etc., depending on the examination.

Note: Leaving Cert. 'A' grades can be 'A1' or 'A2' only. Grades 'B', 'C', and 'D' can be '1', '2' or '3'.

No Grade should be Coded 8.

Matric. grades are A, B, C, D only.

All grades should be padded out to the right with a '0' (zero). Grade 'A' will become 'A0', 'A1' would be left as 'A1'; 'B2' would be left as 'B2' etc. Junior and Matric. (which can only be single alpha codes) should all be padded out to the right with a '0'. If we have subject and level but grade is missing, code grade as '-9'.

AREA CODES (INTERVIEWER'S USE ONLY)
FOR USE IN QUESTIONS 2(B) AND 3

The area codes for Dublin City are the numbers of the postal districts: thus,

Dublin 1 = 01; Dublin 2 = 02; Dublin 3 = 03 etc.

(If Inter or Group Cert. is given as last examination code to Junior Cert. at 6a. Code 3 subjects as per Junior Cert. Code to 7 in Q 8 and 3 in Q.9.)

4	8	Code only two exams. Leave blank if never sat for an examination.
4	9b	If respondent EVER did a VPT at any stage include it here.
5	11a	Make sure that this is completed at least up to and including December 1996. (Check date of interview, Page 2) (If you find a student who was clearly on a summer job during the holidays assign a code 8 rather than a code 1 in the appropriate margin. Code 8 is a new code which does not appear on the questionnaire).
5	11b	If person at work at any of the 3 dates (i.e., '1' or '8' (summer job), use 1986 Census occupation codes. If student (i.e., code '4') use following codes:

*students on
lots June - Sept
Code as 7
other*

Third Level Technical 001
(include. Veterinary, Agriculture, Engineering
Medicine, Computer Science Degree, etc.
Domestic Science Degree) include. Diploma Courses
Pharmacy Technician, Nursing Diploma

Third Level Business Studies 002
(incl. Economics, Commerce, Hotel Management)
include. Accountancy Technician, Tourism at RTC,
Hotel Mgmt. through CERT

Third Level Other 003
(include Law, Arts, Social Science, Teacher Training Theology, Art and Design)

Secretarial Courses 004

Other (Non-third Level) 005
(i.e., non-third level Agriculture, Domestic Science
Computer Science, etc. - usually one year courses)
Montessori, Chef courses at RTCs
3 year horticultural courses etc.

If Other (i.e., '7' at Q.11a) leave L11b.1; L11b.2; L11b.3 blank.

6	12b	The duration of a FÁS course (Codes 7-12) Q10. i.e., unemployed, should be taken into account when calculating the total number of weeks the person is continuously unemployed. Check this reconciles with Q 11 a.

7	14	Use Census 1986 Classification of Occupations.

7	15	If relative assisting and in receipt of more than £20 in Q.20, Code 3 (employee) and also change occupation Code to 206 in Q.14.
7	16	Use C.S.O. classification of industries.
7	18	20 hours or less = part-time, 21 hours + = full-time.
7	20	In cases where the amounts given for the gross and net pay are the same , code the amount given in both boxes if the amount earned is £50 or less. When the amount is over £50 code as -9 in the gross box.
8	24b	Use Census 1986 classification of occupations.	444 Factory Worker
8	26	Use Census 1986 classification of occupations.	+ 496
9	27	Use C.S.O. classification of industries.	555 Any thing
9	29	In cases where the amount given for the gross and net pay are the same, code the amount given in both boxes if the amount earned is £50 or less. When amount is over £50 code - 9 in gross box.
9	30 a, b	Check back with Q.11a. If the answer here is "Yes" you would expect to see code 2 or 3 at Q.11a. It is just possible (but not unlikely) that they would have had one week's unemployment at the end of May which was not entered as their main status in that month.
Note: Questions 25-30b refer to the situation at 31 May 1996 and any job held at that time.
9	31	Enter method(s) used 1, 2, 3 etc.
10	32	Code scheme number from Card A in Q. 10. Code starting and ending dates in appropriate boxes. Two digits for month and two for year (i.e., 'May' = '05'; '1996' = '96'). N.B. if year is not given use your own discretion - it should not be left blank.
		If offer refused Code 13 in starting month box.
		If 'not yet started' Code 14 in starting month box.
		If 'still participating' Code 15 in ending month box.
10	33	Code trainee nurses to 2 and complete Qs. 34 and 35 accordingly.
