

UCD Sutherland
School of Law

MSc International Law & Business (One Year Full Time)

Globalisation has made it necessary to have a sound knowledge of international law and business, whether you wish to join an internationally trading organisation or major law firm.

This interdisciplinary programme promotes critical analysis of different aspects of international law and business, and is directed at well-qualified graduates in law, business and associated disciplines. The programme offers students with undergraduate qualifications in Law or Business (also including economics or finance) the opportunity for advanced study in both disciplines.

On completion, students will have developed critical thinking abilities not only on the development of and relationship between the two disciplines, but also on the application of knowledge to the worlds of law and business.
