Good Times.

Good Times.

What are your favorite jokes...

Good Times.

What are your favorite things to do?

Pleasure and Mastery.

It can be useful to think of the amount of pleasure and mastery that good times give you. This is especially true if you have been feeling down.

PLEASURE means the amount that you enjoy doing something.

MASTERY means the amount of satisfaction that you get from the challenge of doing something.

The amount of pleasure or mastery that you get from anything is a matter of personal opinion. You can judge the amount of pleasure that you get from doing something fun by using our pleasure-ometer.

You can judge the amount of mastery that you get from doing something fun by using our mastery-ometer.

Good Times.

From completing this part of my guidebook I think that for me the most important things about good times are...
