Dear Colleagues,

Opening of Courses for 2022

Applications for 2022 entry, apart from agreed exceptions, will open on 1 October.

Unless we have been advised to the contrary in advance, any courses which are still open for either January, May or September 2021 entry, apart from agreed exceptions, will be closed on 30 September.

The courses which are set up to open for 2022 will be available to view on the Application Form Preview before 1 October. You are strongly advised to review the entries for your School and advise us of any changes or amendments before the opening date, particularly where courses which were running in 2021 are no longer being offered or where new courses are being run.

Please feel free to contact me directly if you have any questions.

Regards,
Martin
