Allocation Policy 2020-21

Overview and Allocation of Spaces 2020-21

UCD Residences has 2,996 bed spaces available to students. While all University students are eligible to book accommodation, currently there are not enough spaces for all students to live on campus. Therefore, to ensure broad availability the spaces have been allocated across a number of different groups. As a result, due to a limited number of spaces, students need to apply in a timely fashion when the applicable waitlist etc. opens.

Summary of Student Residence Allocations 2020-21
	Category	Allocation*
New Entrants	Junior Year (CAO)	1,040 spaces
New Entrants	International Cohorts	1,090 spaces
Existing Students	Continuing and Final Year Students	575 spaces
Other	UCD Residences Scholarship Schemes, Access Rooms and Residential Assistants	291 spaces
	TOTAL SPACES FOR ALLOCATION	2,996 spaces

* These allocations are correct as of the publish date of Summer 2020, however these may be subject to change for operational reasons throughout the year.

Room Booking Policy

The Room Booking System is fully online, and students can search for available rooms and complete their contract in one process.

UCD Residence scholarship schemes are run by UCD Residences for a number of categories. These include Sports, Ad Astra, and Bord na Gaeilge. If you have applied to any of the residence scholarship schemes or under the access routes successfully you will be marked on the student information system (SISWeb) accordingly and offered the relevant accommodation options subject to availability.

Please be advised that UCD Residences accommodation is open for booking to all eligible UCD students, mixed genders and ages. As you choose your room please be mindful that you can see who has already booked into the apartment you are considering. It is important to note that where a resident is under 18, they will likely be sharing an apartment with students over 18 years of age. There are a small number of rooms reserved as single gender for religious reasons (these rooms are reserved for specific programmes booked through the International Office).

Offers will be notified by email to students through their new UCD email account and it is their responsibility to check their email daily, including the spam and junk mail folder.

If at the time of booking rooms are unavailable, students may opt to register on the electronic waiting list which will also offer on a "first come first served" basis as rooms become available.

Due to government health advice, some booking and arrivals requirements may alter. For up-to-date information on changes to standard policy, please see our FAQs via the following links: CAO Students, International Students, Returning / Continuing Students.

Further Relevant Information

It is important that students make themselves fully aware of the terms and conditions of room bookings. As part of the booking process you will be asked to accept the terms and conditions and will be provided with a link to them. However, all relevant information is available on our website and we advise that you take the opportunity to review them in advance.
