

UCD Gender Studies University College Dublin

APPLICATIONS are now OPEN for GENDER STUDIES MA & Graduate Diploma University College Dublin – UCD (One Year Full Time or Two Years Part Time) 2020-21

Our Masters/Graduate Diploma in Gender Studies has developed over twenty-five years to become the most established gender studies programme in Ireland. Drawing on feminist, gender, queer, trans*, sexualities and masculinities theories and methodologies our programme offers students an opportunity to engage with vibrant, intersectional scholarship that reflects our rapidly evolving economic and social worlds.

The Gender Studies faculty at UCD are deeply committed to innovative teaching methods. Our programme will appeal to students interested in challenging traditional ways of thinking and knowing and engaging in dynamic and disruptive learning environments. Our programme seeks to transform gendered relations and challenge social and economic inequalities based on social solidarity and gender justice. Gender Relations are changing in Ireland and globally – we invite you to explore and create change with us!

University College Dublin is a leading research-intensive university. Our programme leads to a well- recognised MA in Gender Studies qualification from one of the top 1% universities in the world. UCD is committed to equality, diversity and inclusion.

UCD Gender Studies operates within the UCD School of Social Policy, Social Work and Social Justice. The School co-hosts the Centre for Gender, Feminisms & Sexualities \(CGFS\).

Applications: www.ucd.ie/apply/

Contact: Aideen.quilty@ucd.ie or dominic.shellard@ucd.ie

Alumni testimonials

Find us on:

Twitter; Facebook; YouTube

