

Graduate Research and Innovations Fund

College of Human Sciences' Graduate School

Graduate Research & Innovation Fund, May 2014

The following students successfully received funding in the most recent round of Graduate Research & Innovation Fund:

- Mr Jack Bwalya (School of Politics & International Relations) €500 to present a paper at the Russian Academy for Social Sciences in Moscow, 27-30 May 2014;
- Mr Clay Darcy (School of Sociology) €200 towards expenses incurred presenting a paper at the ICSM Symposium of Men & Masculinities, Turkey, 11-13 September 2014;
- Ms Sarah Cooney (School of Psychology), €350 in order to attend a workshop in Roverto, Italy;
- Ms Louise Dolphin, (School of Psychology), €350 in order to present a paper at the BPS Developmental Section Annual Conference in Amsterdam, 3-5 September;
- Ms Laura Douglas, (School of Psychology), €350 to present a poster at the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities European Congress in Vienna, 14-17 July;
- Ms Susan Flynn (School of Social Justice), €350 for presenting a paper at the International Disability Conference in Amsterdam, November 2013;
- Ms Katie Grogan, (School of Psychology), €350 to present a poster at the 4th Congress of the UK Adult ADHD Network, 10-12 September;
- Ms Rachel Kenny, (School of Psychology), €300 for attending courses on Psychometrics in University of Cambridge, April 2014;
- Mr Brian Harrington, (School of Psychology), €300 to attend a Summer School in Utrecht, 18-22 August;
- Ms Ozgecan Kesici, (School of Sociology), €500 to present a paper at the Association for Borderlands Studies in St Petersburg, 9-13 June;

- Ms Christine Lennon, (School of Education), €350 towards expenses presenting a paper at the International Standing Conference on the History of Education in London, 23-26 July;
- Mr Oskar Milik, (School of Sociology), €700 to present a paper at the Digital Games Research in Salt Lake City, 3-6 August;
- Ms Orla Ní Cheallacháin (School of Politics & International Relations), €300 to attend the European Consortium of Political Research Summer School in Ljubljana, 25 July – 9 August;
- Ms Siobhan NicFhlannchadha, (School of Psychology), €200 towards presenting at the International Association for the Study of Child Language in Amsterdam, 14-18 July;
- Ms Emer Nowlan, (School of Education), €350 to present a paper at the European Conference of Educational Research in Porto, 2-5 September;
- Mr Sean O Donnchadha, (School of Psychology), €350 to present a paper at the International Multiple Sclerosis Cognition Society in Barcelona, 13-14 June;
- Mr Martin Okolikj, (School of Politics & International Relations), €300 to attend the European Consortium of Political Research Summer School in Ljubljana, 25 July – 9 August;
- Ms Enrica Pinca, (School of Geography, Planning & Environmental Policy), €200 to present a paper at the ERSA Summer School in Poznan, 2-9 July;