

12:15-13:00

Session 3-A Room L242 Co-chairs: Mr Dan Hartnett (PhD)/Dr Mary Canning

Mu Li — School of Law

The scope of supranational judicial interference over national economic unilateral measures for political purpose: The role of international adjudicative bodies for promoting the international rule of law

Muireann O'Dwyer — School of Politics & International Relations

Gender & economic surveillance after the six pack: A feminist exploration of new governance in the EU's economic governance

Nusha Yonkova — School of Social Justice

Gender-sensitive approach to protection & assistance of trafficked persons: A comparative study of Ireland, Bulgaria, UK & Croatia

Catherine McElhinney — School of Business

Making the transition: Rethinking what we know about the next generation and family business

Session 3-B Room L244 Co-chairs: Ms Louise Rooney (PhD) / Dr Seamas Kelly

John McMahon — School of Psychology

Emotional expression in men: A study

Elizabeth Hoyne — Doctor of Governance IPA

How can stronger governance structures at a national, local & school level improve school attendance rates?

Julius Nyiwung — School of Business

Contextualizing the research method and conducting fieldwork in Sub-Sahara Africa: An experience of studying HRM in the oil sector in Cameroon

Darren Broomfield — School of Social Justice

"Trickle down misery": Examining affective inequality in the lives of criminalised persons

Session 3-C Room L243 Chair: Mr Joe Garrihy (PhD)

Roland Gjoni — School of Politics & International Relations

A difference kind of "Us": National identity dynamics in Albania & Kosovo

Aonghus Cheevers — School of Law

Mediation in the United States and Ireland, criticisms and future directions

Bezzini, Rachele — School of Sociology

Albanians, Italians, Romanians: Notes towards a research on mixedness

Emmanuel Eyiah-Donkor — School of Business

Predictability and learning in equity, bond, currency and commodity markets.

14:00-15:00 — Workshop: 'Viva the viva!' by Prof. Ben Tonra at the Moot Court

Design: Yuko Comlon

Graduate Research Student I Symposium 2015

UCD College of Human Sciences Graduate School
UCD College of Business and Law Graduate School

Thursday, 7 May 2015
Sutherland School of Law

Schedule

9:00

Welcome by Prof. Colin Scott,
College Principal, Human Sciences

9:15-10:30

- Session 1-A (L241)
- Session 1-B (L242)
- Session 1-C (L243)

Coffee Break

10:50-12:05

- Session 2-A (L241)
- Session 2-B (L242)
- Session 2-C (L243)

12:15-13:00

- Session 3-A (L242)
- Session 3-B (L244)
- Session 3-C (L243)

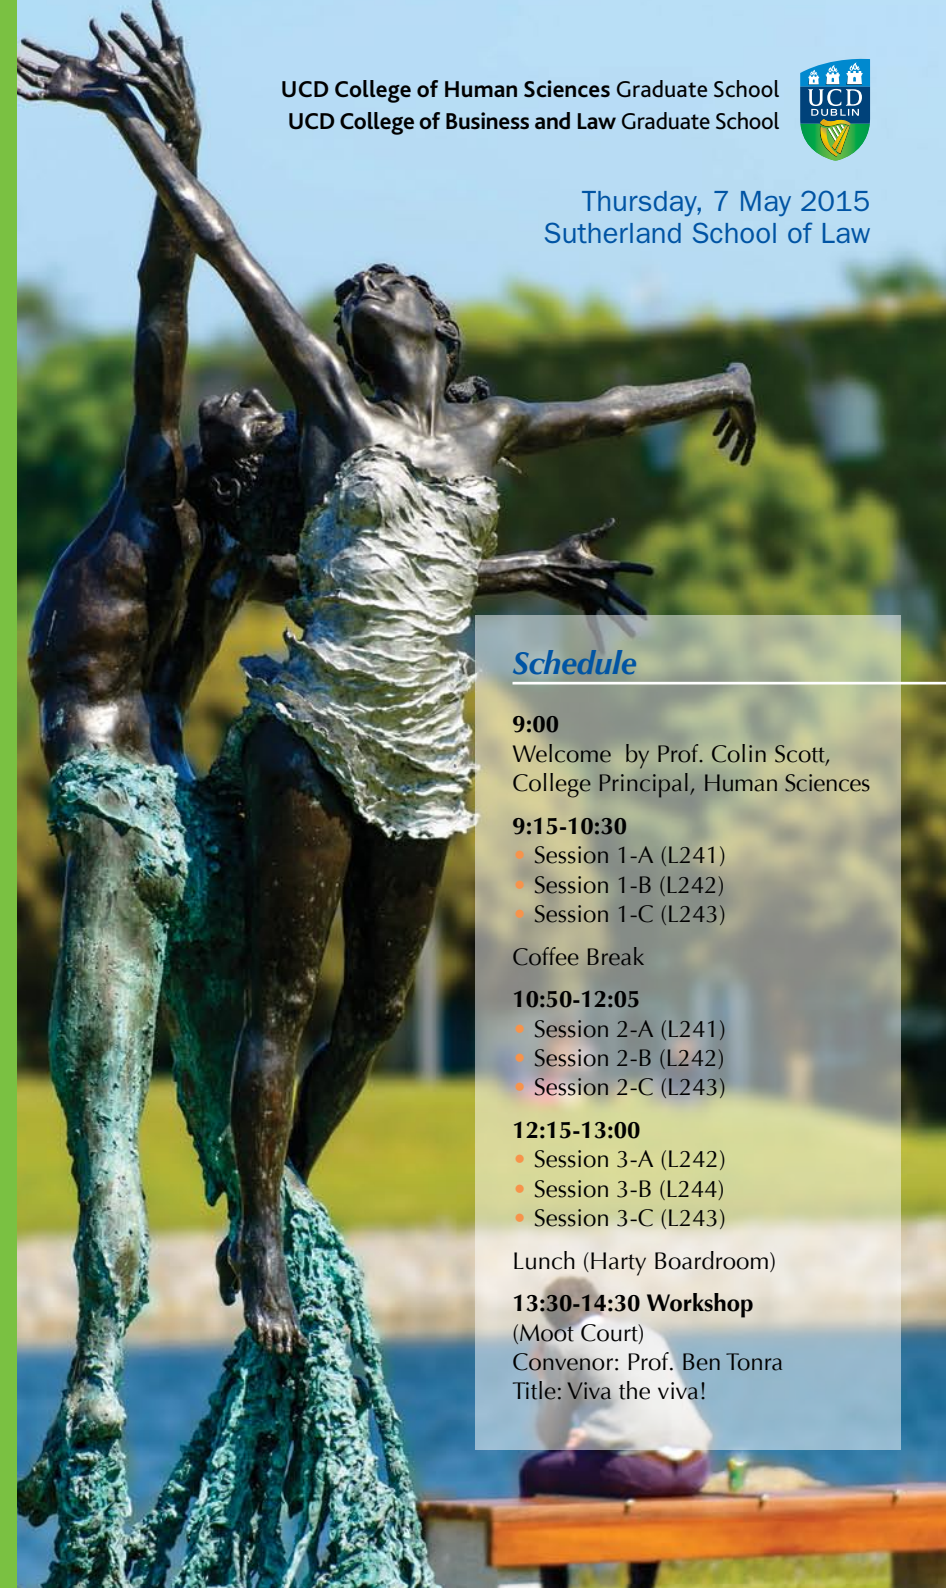

Lunch (Harty Boardroom)

13:30-14:30 Workshop

(Moot Court)

Convenor: Prof. Ben Tonra
Title: Viva the viva!

UCD College of Human Sciences Graduate School 01 716 8268 gs.chs@ucd.ie
UCD College of Business and Law Graduate School 01 716 8064 jane.omara@ucd.ie
UCD Sutherland School of Law 01 716 4111 niamh.mccabe@ucd.ie

9:15-10:30

Session 1-A

Room L241 Chair: Prof Imelda Maher

Martin Okolijk — School of Politics & International Relations

Quality of government & incumbents performance: Re-conceptualisation of economic voting theory

Maeve Kelly — School of Philosophy

Gender & equality in academia

Bo Zhang — School of Education

Towards a virtual campus: Ireland-China

Orla Ni Cheallachain — School of Politics & International Relations

Countering the threat of terrorism: Can a critical discourse analysis framework help?

Juiyuan Chen — School of Business

Stock market liquidity and corporate finance

Session 1-B

Room L242 Chair: Prof Paul O'Connor

Joe Garrihy — School of Law

Dirty work in prison and its significance in the analysis of prison officers' occupational culture and identity

Brian Harrington — School of Psychology

Video game use & prosocial behaviour: The relationship between prosocial video game use, empathy & prosocial behaviour in Irish children & adolescents

Kejia Xue — School of Politics & International Relations

Entrepreneurial Chinese migrants in Madagascar: Historical trajectory, local perspective & socioeconomic impact

Seamus McGrath — School of Business

Board of director behaviour in the context of organisational crises

Pierce Parker — School of Applied Social Science

Comparative analysis of labour market performances of the new EU Eastern European & Baltic State migrant workers in the Republic of Ireland

Session 1-C

Room L243 Chair: Prof Gavin Barrett

Aoife Watters — School of Law

Why do prisons not descend into chaos? An analysis of the prison discipline system

Zahra Farahani — School of Psychology

Conceptualising the experience of inclusion in Muslim migrant women in Ireland

Eamonn Waters — Doctor of Governance IPA

Electronic voting in Ireland: A study of technical innovation & controversial failure

Thérèse McDonnell — School of Economics

Non-cognitive skills in early childhood: The influence of parental employment & childcare choices

Maureen Flynn — School of Business

Accountability practices for clinical governance

10:50-12:05

Session 2-A

Room L241 Chair: Dr Jessica Bramham

Louise Rooney — School of Law

Words and numbers: Introducing a new methodological framework for investigating the response of professionals to female perpetrated child sexual abuse

Tina Bedenik — School of Social Justice

Sisters Are Doin' It for Themselves? Understanding female genital cosmetic surgery

Orla Lenihan — School of Business

CEO annual bonus and performance target obfuscation: An empirical investigation

Michael Drew — School of Applied Social Science

Food poverty: A case for reassessment

Yunmi Kim — School of Business

Understanding Workplace Ostracism: A Conceptual Framework based on Social Exchange Theory and Lewin's Field Theory

Session 2-B

Room L242 Co-chairs: Mr Roland Gjoni (PhD)/Dr Judy Walsh

Dan Hartnett — School of Psychology

Functional family therapy in an Irish context

Aengus Fallon — School of Law

The contribution of Arthur V Matheson, first parliamentary draftsman, to the legislative structure of the Irish Free State (1922-1943)

Hang Xiong — School of Sociology (PhD in CSCS)

The diffusion of a high-value crop in rural China: Peer effects in multiplex social networks

Louise Burns — School of Geography, Planning & Environmental Policy

Law, landscape & the common good. Access to the countryside for recreation

Ruiqi Wei — School of Business

Power and conflict in two-sided internet platforms

Session 2-C

Room L243 Co-chairs: Ms Aoife Watters (PhD)/Dr Aogan Mulcahy

Ann Averil — School of Sociology

A historical sociology of Irish nationalism since the 18th century

David McCaffrey — School of Business

Strategic responses of primary care physicians to changes in state funding

Joseph Eburn — Social Justice

Racial stratification: Race is never not an issue

Yao Han — School of Politics (PhD in Quantitative Social Sciences)

Asymmetric trade dependence & interstate conflict onset embedded in networks