

Spring Trimester Results Release Date

Results for the Spring Trimester will be issued to you on Friday, 18 June 2021. See Assessment Key Dates for further information. Further details on how to access your results on the day will be provided nearer the time.

UCD Student Advisers: Here to Support You

We are in uncharted waters at the moment and UCD Student Advisers want you to know, you are not alone. We are available to you as always. Please contact us if you are looking for support. Please be proactive in supporting yourself and one another.

Top Study & Exam Tips from the UCD Student Health Service Team

UCD Student Health has put together a Top Tips List for approaching this upcoming exam season. Head on over to their Instagram page to read up on the benefits of implementing those tips throughout your day.

NiteLine is Recruiting!

NiteLine provides excellent opportunities for students to gain skills such as communication and time management, as well as helping the general student population in UCD. So far this year, we have taken 1,378 contacts from students on topics such as college, mental health, loneliness and relationships. Check out our website for more information.

UCD Library and UCD exams

All the information you need to know about UCD Library and the upcoming exams period is now on our blog. We wish you the best of luck in preparing for your exams!

Change of Access to Car Park O4

As part of the enabling works for Phase 2 of the Student Residences Master Plan access to car park O4 (rear of Lochlann Quinn School of Business) will be via the N11 entrance and campus ring road from Wednesday, 28 April. See our web page for details.

Your Sexual Health Check-up | UCD Student Health Service

You may be finding it more difficult to manage your sexual health check-ups due to Covid. Slaintecare now makes it possible to get tested in a discreet, confidential and safe manner in the comfort of your own home. Order your free testing kit from their website.

Part-Time, Flexible Summer Work Available

UCD Foundation are looking for outgoing and chatty students to join our student caller team. If you are interested in a role contacting UCD alumni, and enjoy talking to other people and working as part of a team of students on campus, please apply.

Looking for Advice on Next Steps?

Did you know that current students can join the UCD Alumni Network online? Get a head start on your career networking from within the global UCD community - recent graduates & established alumni - who are willing to help you navigate your next steps.

National Survey: Sexual Violence and Harassment in Higher Education – Have vour sav!

Please complete the survey before Friday, 30 April to help HEA and the University understand your experience and to get an overall picture of what is happening on our campuses. For more information about the survey and support services please go to the UCD EDI website.

More UCD Library Revision and Exams Tips

In addition to our infographic helping you prepare for open book exams, see our Academic Integrity guide for more top tips for success with your revision and exams. Good luck with studying and be sure to check our website for our exam opening times.

2021 NovaUCD Innovation Awardees in Conversation with Olive Keogh

Join us on Thursday, 29 April, 2 pm, when journalist Olive Keogh will be in conversation with 2021 NovaUCD Innovation Awardees, Charlie Gleeson, Founder, Zipp Mobility and Prof. R. Bogdan Staszewski, Co-Founder, Equal1 Labs. Find out more and register to attend via Eventbrite.

Early Career Researcher Forum: Finding and Funding Your Next Move

The Earth Institute are hosting an information session and panel discussion on career development in environmental and sustainability research. If you're looking for PhD or Postdoctoral funded opportunities, please register.

Free Webinars for Parents on Youth Mental Health

The UCD Youth Mental Health Lab UCD, in conjunction with YouLead, has organised a series of four webinars for parents running on Monday evenings. The theme of the webinars is Supporting Young People's Well-being. Register via Eventbrite.

The UCD Student Update is published fortnightly on a Tuesday during the academic term by the Communications Office, UCD Registry.