

HADD
Ireland

The ADHD Tsunami? Global perspectives

International 1-day conference

University College Dublin • George Moore Auditorium • UCD O'Brien Centre for Science

14 October 2016, 9am – 4.30pm

9 am • Coffee & Registration

9.20 • Opening remarks Professor Fiona McNicholas

Professor, UCD Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry; Consultant Psychiatrist, Lucena Clinic, Dublin & Our Lady's Children's Hospital, Crumlin, Dublin

9.30 • ADHD: The validity of the diagnosis, its prevalence and treatment rates worldwide and over time

Professor Guilherme Polanczyk

Assistant Professor of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, University of Sao Paulo, Brazil

10.10 • 'Nobody understands' my ADHD: An exploration of the Irish experience of diagnosis & treatment

Dr Kate Carr-Fanning

*Lecturer, School of Psychological, Social and Behavioural Sciences, Coventry University, UK
Board Member HADD Ireland & ADHD Europe*

10.40 – 11.00 Coffee

11.00 • Welcome address Professor Andrew Deekes

President, University College Dublin

11.15 • ADHD – or not? Attitudes to ADHD in primary care, education, probation and the media in Ireland

Dr Mimi Tatlow-Golden

UCD Newman ADHD Shire Research Fellow, UCD Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

11.55 • ADHD views and practices: Child psychiatrists and paediatricians in Ireland and Brazil

Ms Fabiola Honorio Neto

Science without Borders PhD Scholar, UCD Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

12.15 • School interventions and resources for ADHD: are they effective?

Professor Rosemary Tannock

Professor Emerita, Ontario Institute of Studies in Education, University of Toronto; Senior Scientist, Neurosciences & Mental Health Research Program, Research Institute of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto

1.10 – 2.30 LUNCH

2.30 • Are the effects of methylphenidate in ADHD really uncertain?

Professor Samuele Cortese

Clinical Associate Professor in Psychology, University of Southampton UK; Adjunct Associate Professor of Child Psychiatry, New York University

3.10 • Treating the child with ADHD – Do psychological interventions work?

Professor Edmund Sonuga-Barke

Professor in Psychology, Developmental Psychopathology & Director, Developmental Brain-Behaviour Laboratory, University of Southampton UK. Visiting Professor, Ghent University, Belgium; Aarhus University, Denmark; University of Sussex, UK. Fellow of the Academy of Medical Sciences

4-4.30 • PANEL DISCUSSION

Please see the link to proceed with the payment and registration for the Conference:

https://sisweb.ucd.ie/usis/W_CR_DISPLAY.P_WEB_PAYMENT?p_linked=Y&p_rsrc_code=FIN140

Attendance €120.

THE CONFERENCE HAS BEEN AWARDED 6 CPD POINTS BY THE COLLEGE OF PSYCHIATRISTS OF IRELAND

Supported by an unrestricted educational grant from Shire Pharmaceuticals

HADD
Ireland

FREE Evening event for parents, carers, and all interested.

13th October 6-8 pm

ADHD: What works in school?

Professor Rosemary Tannock MD, Toronto, Canada

E114, Newman Building, UCD

Professor Emerita, Ontario Institute of Studies in Education, University of Toronto; Senior Scientist, Neurosciences & Mental Health Research Program, Research Institute of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto

Evening Event Free but prior registration required at info@hadd.ie

International 1-day conference
University College Dublin • George Moore Auditorium • UCD O'Brien Centre for Science

14th October 2016, 9am – 4.30pm

“The ADHD Tsunami? Global perspectives

Please see the link to proceed with the payment and registration for the Conference:

https://sisweb.ucd.ie/usis/W_CR_DISPLAY.P_WEB_PAYMENT?p_linked=Y&p_rsrc_code=FIN140

Attendance €120.