LIMERICK CHRON

DEATH OF MRS. WM. LE FANU.

We regret to record the death of Mrs William Le Fanu, of Summer Hill, Enniskerry, widow of the late Mr William Le Fanu, Commissioner of the Board of Works, and sister-in-law of Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu, the eminent novelist. The deceased lady, who was youngest daughter of the late Sir Matthew Barrington, Glengal, County Limerick, was remarkable for her charitable disposition and many other excellent traits of character, and her demise is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral took place at Enniskerry, and was very largely attended. The chief mourners were six out of the seven sons (the youngest son, Hugh Le Fanu, R.N., being on service with his ship off the West Coast of America), the two daughters, Misses Harley and Emma Le Fanu, and the two daughters-in-law, Mrs T. Le Fanu and Mrs Fletcher Le Fanu. Amongst those also present were—Viscount Monk, Sir Chas Barrington, Bart; the Hon Maurice de V. Wingfield, Colonel Hopton Scott, Captain H J May, William K. Darley, Esq, The Duke, Bray, Captain H C Scott, J Dalrymple Carnegie, Esq, Head, Esq, Thornhill, Francis J. Denchy, Esq; Kenneth C. Weldon, Esq, T.C.; W. Godfrey Lyon, Esq; Marmaduke Blakemore, Esq; Major T H Acton, Royal Artillery; Hamden Acton, Esq; George C May, Esq; Sergeant Jellatt, M B Jellatt, Esq; C Townsend, Esq; C W Scott, Esq; Croker Barrington, Esq; Devaynes Smyth, Esq, J P; Lieut-Colonel G Rowan Hamilton, J P; Albert Meldon, Esq, E M; L French-Lloyd, Esq; G H Stepney, Esq, J P; John M. Fisher, Esq; Captain W H. Irvine, and Mrs Irvine, the Hon Mrs Royce, Miss Royce, Wellington Darley, Esq; Mrs Wellington Darley, Mrs Sandy, The Dargle, Lady Barrington, the Misses Barrington, Lewis Hall, Esq, D L; Very Rev Chas Cuddihy, P P, Enniskerry; Lewis B Meredith, Esq; Gilbert Hodson, Esq; Colonel P F Robertson, Captain J R D Robertson, Mrs P J Robertson, the Misses Robertson, T B Donnelly, Esq; Rev E H Whelan, Rev H P Glenn, Philip P Barrington, Esq; Richard Brew, Esq, M B; John C Buckley, Thomas Jones, Thomas Greene, Esq; Herbert W Greene, Esq; Francis Buckley, John Tunstead, George Telford, G Pentland, Esq, and Mrs Pentland, E H C Wellesley, J G Bayly, Esq; F Dunnehey, Rev John Macdon, C C; J N Y Pollock, Esq; James Bunn, Michael Tallon, Joseph Doyle, Francis Ward, Thomas Bradner, E M Bradner.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev Archdeacon and the Rev Messrs Boyle and Smith, in Enniskerry Parish Church.

Enniskerry and its neighbourhood turned out en masse to pay their last respects to this kind-hearted and most deservedly popular lady. It will be long before pleasant and grateful memories in reference to the long continued good works of the late Mrs William F Le Fanu are forgotten. The floral contributions were handsome and numerous.

DEATH OF MR. HECTOR MCKERN.

The "Buenos Aires Standard" of Saturday, October 26th, 1907 (just to hand) has the following:—

The news of the death of Mr. Hector McKern, who passed away yesterday at No. 724, Calle San Martin, has caused much sincere regret amongst his very wide circle of friends in this city.

The deceased, who was a well-known figure in Buenos Aires, was born at Limerick, Ireland, in 1824, his father, Mr. George McKern, being a leading stationer of that city.

In the year 1842, in company with his brother William, he arrived in the Plate and immediately took employment with one of the then leading American firms. A few years later he went out to the camp, returning to Buenos Aires in 1849, when he joined his brother George, who had recently arrived, and established a stationery business under the firm name of McKern Brothers.

Later on, Mr. Wm. McKern joined the firm, which for many years was the leading house in its line in the River Plate. In 1880 he deceased withdrew and purchased an estancia, "Las Tres Bonitas," in Lincoln. This he disposed of in the early nineties, since when he had not been engaged in active business. Mr. McKern was a well read and well informed man, and an interesting and instructive conversationalist. He was a well-known figure at the English Literary Society, where he frequently enjoyed a game of chess. Until six weeks ago he was in good health and appeared much younger than he was. At that time his digestion suddenly began to fail, but his mind remained perfectly clear till the last, and he passed away peacefully as above noted.

The funeral will take place to-day, Saturday, the 26th, at 3 p.m., from his late residence, 724 San Martin, for the British section of the Chacarita. Carriages will be in waiting at Deck's, Maipu, corner of Viamonte, up to the
