

WAC-6

IRELAND 2008
29th June - 4th July

SIXTH WORLD ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONGRESS • DUBLIN • IRELAND

Welcome to the Sixth World Archaeological Congress

On behalf of the Organising Committee of the Sixth World Archaeological Congress it is a great pleasure to invite colleagues from across the globe to come to Dublin, Ireland from 29th June to 4th July 2008. This is the first time that the World Archaeological Congress has been held in Ireland and we look forward to making it a truly successful and memorable congress. The spacious campus of University College Dublin close to the city centre will be the main venue for WAC-6. We are planning a varied and engaging thematic programme complemented by a wide range of social events. You will also have the opportunity to see the rich cultural and social life of Dublin as well as to sample Ireland's outstanding archaeological heritage.

Céad míle fáilte (a hundred thousand welcomes!) to you all.. Gabriel Cooney, Academic Secretary WAC-6

Patron Mary McAleese
President of Ireland

Éarlámh Máire Mhic Ghiolla Íosa
Uachtarán na hÉireann

Congress web site

Please visit: <http://www.ucd.ie/wac-6/>

Venue

The WAC-6 congress will be held at University College Dublin, located approximately 6km from the city centre. This modern campus, surrounded by attractive landscaped gardens, is an ideal location for the congress. Also on campus are banking facilities, a travel agency, self service laundry and extensive sporting facilities. The main congress buildings will be the O'Reilly Hall and Newman Building, both of which are fully accessible by wheelchair. Different types of self-catering accommodation are available on and off campus and there are a number of hotels in the immediate vicinity of UCD.
